EARWIG MUSIC COMPANY PRESENTS

CADILLAC BABY'S BEA & BABY RECORDS

THE DEFINITIVE COLLECTION

IN CELEBRATION OF ITS 40TH YEAR AS A RECORD LABEL, EARWIG MUSIC COMPANY is releasing this deluxe package of a broad array of American music, spanning 30 years of recordings between 1959 and 1989. Cadillac Baby's company, Bea and Baby Records, produced too much great music to let it fall into the dust bin of history.

In his 1971 Living Blues story about Narvel Eatmon, magazine co-founder Jim O'Neal brought to life the man who made Cadillac Baby his name, lifestyle, night club and record label brand. I met Cadillac Baby in 1974, and collaborated with him from the Fall of 1988 until his death in March 1991. This box set, a work in progress for over 30 years, enables music lovers worldwide to enjoy all the magical music he produced. Cadillac Baby's Bea & Baby Records: The Definitive Collection represents my personal mission to memorialize the legacy of Cadillac Baby.

Michael Robert Frank, Earwig Music Company Founder & CEO

In Chicago's teeming South Side underworld populated with hucksters, hustlers, rogues, and enterprising impresarios ruling their own blocks of turf, CADILLAC BABY stood out as one of the most irrepressible and colorful characters of all. Though not a singer or musician, in his own right he was a more engaging entertainer than most of the blues artists in Chicago, including those he recorded for BEA & BABY RECORDS and booked at his nightclub. Besides amazing urban and country blues, this diverse collection includes doo wop, soul, gospel, and even some comedy and hip hop tracks, plus interview snippets with Cadillac Baby.

- 4 CD Box Set
- 128 page hardbound book with many rare photos
- Historical liner notes by experts in blues, gospel and R&B
- Updated and complete Bea & Baby Records discography
- All tracks recorded 1959–1989, remastered
- Previously unreleased Sleepy John Estes and Hammie Nixon tracks
- 2 newly discovered tracks by a mystery blues band
- Interview segments with Cadillac Baby

FIONA JOY HAWKINS AND REBECCA DANIEL
THE LIGHTNESS OF DARK

KEY SELLING POINTS:

The Lightness of Dark by Fiona Joy Hawkins & Rebecca Daniel is an ethereal and collaborative journey into the depths of loss, mourning and recovery. Recorded in Australia for Piano, String Quartet (Kanimbla Quartet) and voice, the album focuses on the way forward and the exploration of lightness within the dark.

We all experience loss at some time in our lives, loss of health, friendship, a pet, lost youth or the loss of a loved one. When real life becomes art, experiences can be shared, learned from and resonate with others in similar situations. This album invites the listener to find the beauty in the sadness and move forward in a positive way.

GOODNIGHT SUZIE
BOOMBOX

Key Selling Points:

Goodnight Suzie consists of Suzie and Ben Bradford--their music glows with a dreamy and accessible sound, illustrative of their 15 years performing together, including time in Seattle-based cover band The Side Project. Influenced by the works of folk singer-songwriters such as Brandi Carlile and Amos Lee, Boombox carries a blend of repetitive pop hooks and stripped-down instrumentation.

Notable tracks include the catchy "I Get the Feeling" and "Wannabe Hipster." Lyrically, the album draws expressiveness from simple and honest descriptions to capture moments and ambiences, and also to paint pictures. Boombox's production and arrangement is a subtle blend of guitar picking and piano textures, as can be heard on "Cookie Cutter" as well as in the percussive mandolin embellish-ments on "Devils Play."
